

A New Beginning

John Jacobson

Dawn! A new day! A fresh start! It's morning!
Light! The first light! A young world adorning, fueled by a heavenly spark;
led by one beacon of hope
moving away from the dark to the light, to the light!

CHORUS

A new beginning will start today.
A chance to change and learn and know a better way.
A new beginning will start with me.
We'll find a way each day to change our destiny.
A dream that ev'ryone can share
and see the light from anywhere.
A new beginning starts today!

Star, a bright star!
A new dream revealing!
Life, a young life;
a new hope of healing!
No one is ever alone!
Nothing is ever the same!
Together we'll start moving on and on and on and on and on!
And on!

Chorus
