Clouds, oh won't you tell us what those tears are for?

17 mf

Do you weep for some-thing, some-thing we've ig - nored? Could it be

22

from your post a - bove, you have seen how lit - tle we have giv - en of our love?

25 f poco rit. e dim.

Do you see trou - bled and the poor? Have you seen the fight - ing and the war?

29 a tempo mp

Clouds, there must be some - way to make your cry - ing cease. Share with us the se - cret of hap - pi - ness and peace. Do you mean we can play a part?

34 mf

39 f

With each spark of love we light, a flame of love may start by giv - ing

42 mf poco rit. e dim.

hope to those we know; This, you say, may help true peace to grow?

45 a tempo mp

Clouds, though you are part - ing, your point, you've made quite clear. Peace

50 pp

will nev - er hap - pen un - less we start it here, start it here.
